

Lori J. Petro
Associate Vice President

Lori Petro is an Associate Vice President the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C). Her responsibilities include ensuring that all learning materials and delivery of all training modalities is consistent, current, high quality, and meets pedagogical best practices. She provides subject matter expertise in areas associated with adult learning and training of domestic law enforcement and in areas associated with delivery of training to criminal justice professionals in foreign countries.

After more than twenty-five years, Lori retired from the Indiana State Police (ISP) at the rank of Captain serving in command-level positions in Training, Special Investigations, Drug Enforcement, and Methamphetamine Suppression.

After retiring from ISP, Lori served as a Senior Police Advisor for the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs where she provided law enforcement expertise, policy analysis, and program guidance on police sector reform that focused on protecting human rights, combatting corruption, and reducing the threat of transnational crime.

Lori's formal education includes a Master of Business Administration from Indiana Wesleyan University and an undergraduate degree from Purdue University with a major in Interpersonal and Public Communications. Lori is a graduate of the FBI National Academy, Session 235.