

Robin Elkins
Webinar Manager

Robin Elkins is the Webinar Manager with the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) responsible for managing, facilitating, and hosting all webinar events. Robin began her career at NW3C in 2001 as an Intelligence Technician, and in 2002 moved into the Enforcement Analyst role, providing technical and financial crime analysis assistance to the law enforcement community. In 2005, Robin was promoted Chief Analyst supervising analytical projects and activities in the Investigative Support Section.

In 1998, Robin began her criminal justice career with the Virginia Department of State Police as a Program Support Technician. In 1999, she was promoted to Supervisor of the Firearms Transaction Center and responsible for determining lawful eligibility of prospective firearm purchasers in accordance with state and federal firearm laws in the State of Virginia.

Robin's formal education includes a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management and Leadership and Associate in Applied Science in Police Science. She holds the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners Certified Fraud Examiner certification and NW3C's Certified Economic Crime Forensic Examiner credential.

