

Demi Fuentes-Ramirez
Curriculum Developer II

Demi Fuentes-Ramirez is a Curriculum Developer II at the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C). She designs and develops training content and materials for in-person, virtual, and self-paced courses. In addition to her role as a curriculum developer, Demi collaborates with the quality control team to review and edit courses and other projects. She also supports the marketing team by reviewing and translating materials for Spanish-speaking audiences.

Prior to working at NW3C, Demi worked as a freelance writer for local West Virginia magazines. She also translated content for the Small Business Association’s Small Business Resource Guide: Spanish Edition and Puerto Rico Edition. She earned a Master’s Degree in Professional Writing and Editing from West Virginia University (WVU) and a bachelor’s degree in English and American Literature from the University of Puerto Rico—Mayagüez Campus (UPRM).
